Doolittle, the Reformer!

Exacting Money for his Influence!

A Shameful Disclosure!

A SPECIMEN "HONEST LIBERAL."

James R. Doolittle, of Wisconsin, who was chosen chairman of the Baltimore Convention has been travelling over this State as a champion of Greeley and reforms, denouncing General Grant for receiving presents and for the corruptions of his administration. What a virtuous man this is may be inferred from an exposure recently made by the New York Times. It appears that Thomas J. Conatty, who had been a Department Clerk, secured the utter part of 1864, through the influence of Doolittle and others, a permit to trade in cotton in the Southern States. Conatty says in his affidavit:

Some two or three weeks after I obtained the permit, I met the Senator accidentally in a street-car in Washington, and told him I had obtained it. He congratulated me on the successful termination of the matter.—He reflected a little, and said nothing further except to ask me to call at his committee room in the Senate House next morning. I called the next morning, in accordance with his request. On that occasion he said substantially. "You have a good thing and will make a pile of money, and can afford to be a little generous." I did not know what he meant. He then said to me in substance.—You know I am a poor man, and have not made any money since I have been in public life. I think you can afford to let me share the proceeds, and be none the poorer. And with this he handed me the letter hereto attached, marked letter No. 1, which he said he had scribbled off, wishing me to copy and send it to him as my own. At the same time he handed me letter No. 2 hereto attached, dated the following day, which he said would be his response to my generous offer contained in letter No. 1. I was too much surprised to make any response. I took those two letters from his office with me to Baltimore, where I then resided. Next day I copied letter marked No. 1, changing the phraseology of one of the sentences referring to myself that would be indelicate had they come from me. His reply I had already received as stated above, having retained both letters in my possession.

The letters given below are printed from photograph copies of the originals in Doolittle's own hand writing, and they finely illustrate that gentleman's modesty and purity.—We believe he has followed the example of Kilpatrick in getting out of Maine as rapidly as possible:

THE LETTERS, No. 1. The letter which Doolittle himself wrote for Conatty to send to him—the original in Doolittle's handwriting:

WASHINGTON, Dec. 27, 1864.

Hon. J. R. Doolittle:

DEAR SIR: I have been engaged for a two years past in the Treasury Department where I have been assiduously at work early and late, until I seriously feared my health might give way.

In consequence of the confidence which my fidelity there has inspired in the head of the Department I have received a permit to trade and to purchase cotton to the amount of fifty thousand bales.

This has been freely given me; and now my dear Sir, allow me to say that during all my stay here I have witnessed on your part a the high position you occupy the same fidelity, and, I may add, such a position and a one of candor, that my heart has been drawn out to you; and, as this permit may enable me to realize a great fortune—too great to be properly administered or enjoyed by any one man—I have determined that, AS A PRESENT ON MY PART, a aid in the belief that you could better use a portion, should I be successful, than I could use all, I WILL REMIT TO YOU THE ONE FOURTH PART OF ALL THE PROFITS I may realize over and above all my expenses I do this in the hope that, while I may become rich in this operation, I may secure to you a competency also.

No. 2.

MR. DOOLITTLE'S GRATEFUL ACCEPTANCE OF A PRESENT.

The following letter is the reply to the above, and was handed to Connatty by Doolittle at the same time:

[Private and confidential.]

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30, 1864.

T. G. Connatty, Esq.:—

My Dear Sir:—Your magnanimous proposition, contained in your letter from Baltimore of yesterday, fills my heart with feelings which I cannot express. Such instances of disinterested friendship are so rare, so few among the sons of men are endowed with such a high and noble generosity, that I am without words to tell you how much it affects you [me.]

I have no claims upon you except those of a disinterested friendship sincerely cherished. As to this permit to trade in cotton, you have obtained it without any word or influence or thought of mine, even direct or indirect, for until your communication to me I never had any knowledge or thought even that you contemplated such a thing.

And yet this fact alone, which gives me no claim upon you, is the only possible ground upon which I accept your generous, I will say more, your magnanimous offer.

Had I aided you in the least, directly or indirectly, in thought, word or deed, I could not have accepted—if I would, and I would not if I could.

I hope you may realize your sanguine expectations, and be able to place yourself without injury to any other human being, in a condition of pecuniary independence, so that when this fearful war is over you may retire to private life, again to cultivate those literary pursuits you so much love, and which are more precious after all than gold and silver.

And should your success be such that in the munificence of your proposition you can enable me to do the same, you will confer a great benefit upon

Your sincere friend,

J. R. DOOLITTLE.

The envelope addressed "T. J. Connaty," marked "private," "J. R. Doolittle, U. S. S."

Home life in America appears to be on the increase; a very important indication both for the public comfort and morals. The last season shows that there are in the United States 4,500,000 families, with an average of nearly six to each family, while in 1860 the average of each family was only four and a quarter. The whole number of families in this country is now estimated at 6,000,000.

The New York Post speculates that there must be "something" in Victoria, and other exposition and exercise for ladies and gentlemen, which is often at show places.

LETTER FROM CAMDEN.

THE POLITICAL CANVASS—CAMDEN AS A PLEASURE RESORT ETC.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier.

CAMDEN Aug. 22.

Politics are not quiet red hot here as yet. We lack the enthusiasm which is so manifest in your city, but are awake to the sense of the day. A young men's Grant and Wilson club has just been formed here, embracing among its members the majority of the young men of talent and ability, in the place. There is no "mister-al" left for a Greeley club to be made up of young men of the same age and standing. It is generally quiet here in the day time, but in the evening crowds gather around the corners and talk about Grant and Wilson," and the coming election. We chanced to be near one of those street meetings, and overheard a sea captain say "that he was not going to vote for Grant, and be d—— if he would vote for GREELEY."

There are but three out-spoken Greeley men here who have generally voted the Republican ticket, and they, by the way, in the event of F. A. Pikes election to Congress are all expecting to be appointed Collector in the Custom House. Pike stands a poor chance in Knox county. Even some of the Democrats do not like his way of "playing cards," and are doing what they can to make his defeat a disgraceful one.

But we will say more about politics at another time. The number of visitors here this summer has been very large. In looking at the Bay View book this morning I've noticed about twelve hundred and fifty arrivals from July 1st to Aug. 20th, four hundred more than for the months of July and August last year. Nearly one tenth of this number were from Bangor—"Oliver Optic" has written a letter from the Bay View. The following is a short extract taken from his Magazine:

BAY VIEW HOUSE, CAMDEN.

Dear Boys and Girls:—We have been told and we have read it in the newspapers, as far West as Chicago, that we are in Newport.—We are not in Newport, and never had any idea of going there to spend our vacation; for the simple reason that we like Camden better. We do not mean to compare Newport and Camden as watering places; but we learn by that a large majority of the sensible people, who do not care for show and fashion, would have a jollier, more health-giving, and pleasanter time in the latter than the former.—Camden has the sea, the lakes, and the mountain—a trio of Nature's glories not often found in one spot. We do not mean to say that Camden is Switzerland and the White Mountains, though it is both, on a small scale planted by the seaside.

This is Mr. "Optic's" Wm. T. Adams's second visit to Camden. He was so favorably impressed with the place at first, and especially with little "Bobtail" at the Bay View, that he has written a story, about him in his magazine, entitled "Little Bobtail, or the Wreck of the Penobscot." The whole story is set to Camden and the immediate vicinity. The names of some of our citizens come into the story, such as Simonton, probably T. R. Philbrook the landlord, Marcellus Prince, the skipper, and Mr. Hinds of Portland, Custom House Agent, and others.

Another good large hotel here, and a Town Hall are two things that will support themselves, and pay handsome dividends to the parties who select them.

KAPPA.

THE LOUISVILLE CONVENTION.

BLANTON DUNCAN INTERVIEWED.

A correspondent of the New York Herald relates the following conversation which he had with Col. Blanton Duncan on the Louisville Convention:

Correspondent—Colonel, I believe you are recognized as a leader of the Bourbon movement.

Colonel Duncan (interposing with a smile of endorsement at the compliment.)—Yes, sir.

Correspondent—Your movements have commenced to attract the greater part of the attention of the Greeley organs, I believe, Colonel.

Colonel Duncan—Yes, sir, (with another smile,) yes, sir, they have been calling me "pig-headed," "obstinate ass," "mendacious defamer," etc., but they are beginning to be scared. They thought they were safe; they didn't let ever anybody would dare set the house on fire—they didn't believe I would set the house on fire. But they were mistaken; now they see it beginning to tumble in and they are frightened. They find that it won't do to ignore me any longer.

Correspondent—I have called, Colonel, for the purpose of obtaining from you some facts concerning the situation, the expectations and the prospects of your party.

Colonel Duncan—well, I don't know what I can give you. The country is alive with the subject, and names are pouring in here every day by the bushel. Every State in the Union, except California, Nevada, New Hampshire, Vermont and Rhode Island, has responded to my circular, and some of them will send from one to one hundred delegations. There will be the biggest and most enthusiastic convention here in September, sir, that has ever been held in this country. They don't believe it, but it is so sir; and you'll find it so.—See here the letters that have come to-day. (Here he jumped out of his comfortable chair and going to a cabinet, took down one of a pigeonhole labelled "Fresh" a great packet of papers which he dumped vigorously on the broad table in front of me. The fall jostled them out over a square yard, and they covered it all. This is only one day's lot of them, remember. Examine them yourself and you'll find one more than I can tell you about the Bourbon movement, as they call it.

I commenced to examine them, the Colonel keeping up a running and enthusiastic talk at the same time that he picked out for me the most important ones and ones from the most distinguished public men.

The Colonel also showed me a book wherein he has inserted the names of all who had written to him declaring themselves in favor of a straight-out nomination. It was a formidable, and to me I must say, a surprising list. He had them divided off into States.—Texas seemed to take the lead; then New York, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Kentucky, Georgia, Minnesota, Wisconsin and others followed, the ones named having the longest list.

THE KU-KLUX PRISONERS.

The Democratic papers have been attempting to make capital for Greeley out of the recommendation of Gerrit Smith that three of the Ku-Klux prisoners at Albany should be pardoned. This excites his indignation, which finds expression in a letter to a personal friend, as follows:

PETERSBORO', N. Y., Aug. 19.

Dear Sir,—This evening's mail brings me your letter of the 14th inst. So far from my believing that a majority of the Ku-Klux prisoners now confined at Albany are innocent of any crime, I do not believe that even one of them is innocent. I take it for granted that they all had fair trials and were justly convicted. There is among those prisoners a youth, who, because he is hopelessly sick, I should like to have pardoned, and also, a man past middle age who, because of his weak intellect, I would commend to the President's clemency. There is also an aged man who, perhaps, and only perhaps, should be left in prison not more than a year or two longer.—For no others have I any plea to offer. I can have no part in whitewashing Ku-Kluxism. I deem it the greatest crime on earth, and thoroughly that spirit exist and is identified with it is the craftiest and most party on earth.

Respectfully yours,
HORACE GREELEY.

Mrs. Julia Ward Howe has been elected secretary of the Women's Journal.

GREELEY'S OVATION.

[From the Kennebec Journal.]

The pilgrimage of "Uncle Horace" into Maine, and his ride to the capital, formed the subject of a glowing and gushing pen-picture by the special correspondent of the New York Sun. Let us follow him for a little in his meanderings: "The train was run at the rate of thirty miles an hour!" (almost enough to take off what little hair Horace has left

On the top of his head,
The place where the wool ought to grow.)

"The entire distance was made at that (fearful) rate of speed." "The engines on that train will have to be suspended for last driving.) "At Brunswick the Hon. Wm. H. Field introduced the next President, and on the banks of the Androscoggin river our next President was grasped by the hands by several hundred lumbermen." (Residents in Brunswick will appreciate that joke—"several hundred lumbermen"—and would like very much to take them by the hand, if they could only find them in that vicinity. And then, "the Hon. William H. Field" is a good one.—Those who have drank Field's hot coffee at his saloon in the Brunswick depot, or made away with a half dozen or so of his cart-wheel doughnuts, will wonder what big doughnuts and hot coffee have to do with conferring the distinction of "Honorable." William has for several successive years been the unsuccessful democratic candidate for representative to the legislature from Brunswick, and this may account for the title. Our own Eben is crushed under the weight of two titles, "General" and ex-Governor," yet he was never in a battle or occupied the Executive chair. But then he was a democratic candidate.). "At Gardiner, Dr. Greeley was met with a committee of citizens from Augusta, among them Sumner Barton and Marshal Whitehead." (From this point it seems that the train "started at a fearful rate of speed.") It was here probably that Horace was "sold" and made to believe that he was to be the "guest of the city authorities of Augusta." The vivid and touching description of the journey closes with the tableau on Winthrop street, during the progress of the procession:

"In Winthrop street Miss Nellie Alden, daughter of Col. Darius Alden, one of the most beautiful women in New England, stepped from her father's palatial residence and presented Dr. Greeley with a handsome bouquet of flowers. Dr. Greeley received it with many thanks, amid the cheers of the multitude and the waving of handkerchiefs by crowds of ladies who filled every window looking on the exciting scene."

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL.

Information from Vermont, gives the assurance that that State will elect the Republican ticket by the usual majority.

The New York Tribune is now attempting to discredit Gen. Grant's war record. It has a big job on its hands.

A letter from Hon. G. W. Mackey of Iowa, says that the prospects of the Republican party in Iowa never were brighter than at the present time.

Enoch Dunton publishes a card denying that he has received any aid from Republicans, or been in collusion with them in any manner.

Hon. Elisha Baxter, Republican candidate for Governor of Arkansas, is a man high in character and of great popular strength. No doubt is felt that he will carry the State.

Secretary Chandler of the National Republican Committee states that New Hampshire will cast her vote for Grant and Wilson, giving two thousand majority, and that New York is sure for Grant.

It has been settled by the recent disclosures of rebel documents that the raid made on St. Albans, Vt., by Confederate soldiers during the rebellion was fully sanctioned by the Confederate Government.

Arkansas, Illinois, New York and New Jersey furnish reports that the straight-out Democrats of those States are all deserting Greeley and preparing to send delegates to the Louisville Convention.

Senator Harlan announces it as his opinion that the Louisville Convention will represent a larger constituency and have more national character than did that at Cincinnati.

Senator Cameron will direct the work of the Republican Congressional Committee during the absence of Senator Chandler, who leaves Washington for Maine, to spend several weeks with Congressman Hale, his son-in-law.

Judge George Hoadley, of Cincinnati, one of the original movers in the Liberal Republican movement, addressed a meeting last night on the question, "Grant or Greeley," and preferring the former.

The Springfield Republican says the New York Republicans in nominating General Dix for Governor have gone to the Democratic party for a candidate. The New York World says Dix is not a Democrat. Another disagreement among the Liberal brothers.

The Chicago Times has received a portrait of Mr. Greeley. The Times says: "Beneath the portrait is the signature: 'Yours for financial anarchy and insolvent triangles. Horace Greeley. Chobham, N. Y., June 30, 1872.'"

The Richmond Enquirer, thoroughly alarmed, pleads with Mr. O'Conor as a man pleads with a brother not to taint his high reputation by permitting his name to be used against the immaculate Democrats, Horace Greeley.

A call has been issued, signed in Springfield, Ill., for a convention of Democrats in favor of straight Democratic nominations for President and Vice President, to meet in that city Thursday the 29th, to select delegates to the Louisville Convention.

A few evenings since at the Twin Mountain House there was a "sheet and pillow-case" party, and two of the party, for fun's sake, approached Mr. Beecher, and extending the congratulations, announced themselves as "Greeley men." "I am glad to see you," responded Mr. B., "and hope to see all your party in grave clothes before November."

Joseph Pratt, one of the men who was made Vice President of the Worcester (Mass.) Greeley Club, says he shall vote for Grant, and Mr. B. B. Vassall, another man whose name was used without his consent, says, in a letter to the Sun:

Had an able, trusty, honest man, been nominated at Cincinnati, in an honest manner, I should have supported him, but I never contemplated casting my vote for Horace Greeley.

THE STRAIGHT DEMOCRATIN MOVEMENT IN THE SOUTH. Advices from the southern States received by the national campaign committee, and by prominent Republicans in Washington, indicate that the strength of the movement for a straight-out independent Democratic ticket is rapidly increasing and likely to have a very decided effect upon the future of the campaign in that portion of the country. The Republican success in North Carolina, and the certainty that O'Conor or some other equally "well-known and reliable" Democrat will receive the nomination at Louisville, have given an unexpected impetus to the effort which at Baltimore was denominated foolhardy, and which it now seems is to become one of the most prominent elements in the canvass. The Democratic organization is most complete and effective in Georgia, but in Virginia and North Carolina a straight ticket will command substantial support.

"The people of the United States know Gen. Grant—have known all about him—and thoroughly like and trust him. They know his antecedents, and do not care to have them raked up by the Democratic press, and hope that who are dragged down to conspicuous ruin through no fault of their own. But this "corner" will not be without its beneficence, for it shall tend to put a stop to the wild effort to make sudden fortunes which by the legitimate channels of trade cannot come save only after years of industry, sagacious dealing and wise economy—to put a stop to the unhealthy "cornering" process which is but another name for robbery, and content our business men to remain within the scope of honorable trade, which in this country is wide enough and offers opportunities enough to employ and completely and rapidly remunerate the best talents at home or abroad.—[Ed.

The Ninth Maine Reunion has been postponed till a future date.

The camp-meeting at East Machias will commence September 2d, on the old grounds.

The shoe business is more lively at Auburn. The shipments last week were 1345 cases to 915 the previous week.

A double track will be laid on the Boston & Maine extension between Biddeford and Saco depots for the convenience in making up trains.

David Clookey, a Frenchman, while riding in Farmington, by the breaking of the wagon thill was thrown out and his right arm broken.

J. P. Quimby, Jr., of Turner, and a graduate of Bates Class of '72 has been appointed principal of Austin Academy, Center Strafford, N. H.

Mr. Alvinza Green of Naples has a tree in his orchard which exhibits the phenomenon of its blossoms and large apples on the same bough.

The Revenue Cutter McCulloch, which in the dense fog of Tuesday went ashore on Seguin Island, has been placed in Portland dry dock to repair damages.

A prize fight for $10 a side took place between a couple of young men in a stable in Portland last week. Twenty rounds were fought and both contestants were well punished, which is very satisfactory.

Charles B. Raymond, A. B., graduate of Bates College in 1870 has just left Portland for Connecticut, where he has been called to a very desirable situation as tutor in the Latin, Greek and Mathematics.

The will of the late Capt. James Goff was approved at the last session of the Probate Court, and Dana Goff and Judge Morrill, named in the will, were appointed executors. The estate is estimated to be $70,000—$55,000 real estate and $15,000 personal.

A little boy named Dechene, living in Portland was nearly run over Wednesday afternoon. The wheels struck him on the back and would have gone over his body but the driver reined up quick and backed his horses. The little fellow was badly hurt.

Captain Moore of the schooner Redoma of Ellsworth, got off a car on which he was riding across the head of the wharves at Ferry Point Calais, on Tuesday, the bunter hit him on the hip and knocked him down, and one wheel of the car ran against his leg and broke it badly just above the knee.

Augusta is to have a shoe factory. It is on Western Avenue, and its size is sixty 80 feet, three stories and basement. Capacity for 200 operators will at present be provided. A building near by will contain the engine, which is to be of from fifteen to twenty horse power.

A little daughter of Mr. S. B. Harmon, of Lewiston, on Tuesday fell into a deep cistern in the cellar. Mrs Harmon, who was up stairs, heard the splash of water and hurrying down cellar was just in time to catch the child as she was rising to the surface. The little girl was senseless when rescued.

The Somerset Railroad Company have nearly completed arrangements for means to secure the iron for laying the track of their graded road from West Waterville to Norridgewock, and probably for the completion of the entire road, by issuing the bonds of the road, secured by mortgage to Messrs. Lewis Pierce of Portland, Dan el Holland of Newton and S. D. Lindsey of Norridgewock, as trustees of the bondholders.

SEVENTEENTH MAINE REGIMENT.—The members of this Association celebrated the 10th anniversary of their "muster-in" at Portland on Tuesday. About 100 companies gathered in the morning, and, accompanied by their guests, went to Little Hog Island on the steamer Express. The election of officers resulted as follows: President, Col. Thomas A. Roberts; Vice Presidents, Capt. Augustus Goldsmith, Priv. A. S. Noyes; Secretary and Treasurer, Adjt. C. W. Roberts; [by acclamation]; Quartermaster, Jos. Pa[illegible], Directors, M. J. W. H. Green, Capt. J. L. Perry, Sergt. F. H. Todd, Sergt. Daniel Goodwin, Priv. H. H. Peters; Historian, Lieut. Josiah Remick; Toastmaster, Capt. S. S. Richards. At the clam bake the site historian, John Lawton, Jr., read the annual history which was full of good things for the members of the regiment, and Gen. C. P. Mattocks read a humorous poem from the pen of John O. Rice, a member of the regiment. Toasts and responses followed. After the division dress parade closed the festivities and the company embarked for home arriving about six o'clock.

A SOMERSET DEMOCRAT DECLARES FOR GRANT. The following letter from Joel Colby, esq., of Bingham, one of the most influential men in the northern part of Somerset county is published in the Somerset Reporter. Mr. Colby was a War Democrat and has represented his town in the Legislature. He has also been a candidate for Senator on the Democratic ticket several times. Few men have more interest in Somerset county, and there is not a member of the Democratic party the loss of whom will be more keenly felt.

BINGHAM, August 17th, 1872.

GEN. R. B. SHEPHERD, Skowhegan.

Dear Sir:—In answer to your inquiries I will say, I have not invested in Greeley stock, and do not see any reason why I should. I am afraid to invest in that stock, because it takes in all that rebel element which sought the very life of the government, and which was put down at the sacrifice of so many valuable lives and so much treasure. I cannot see why the country, to-day, financially, is not in a fair and prosperous condition. The national debt is being reduced, business is good, the labouring man was never better paid for his labor than at present time, and all the necessaries of life are now at very fair prices.

I cannot see any good in a change of administration at this time, but can much evil. I prefer that the party now in power should continue to do another four years at least.—Many of my Democratic brethren here are feeling much as I do, and I am very much mistaken if they do not withdraw vote for the conqueror of the rebellion this fall.

Truly your obedient serv't,
JOEL COLBY.

PIKE'S ANGLING. A Cutler correspondent of the Eastport Sentinel says that a prominent Republican in that locality, who was always a warm friend of F. A. Pike, received a letter from Fred. prior to the extra meeting at Belfast, which concluded somewhat as follows:

"Politics are somewhat mixed just now, and I find myself a candidate for (representative) Congress, I am sorry to leave my old friends, but the most of them are going with me. We are going to hold a Convention at Belfast on the 30th inst., won't you come along with us? If you will it will be worth a million."

F. A. PIKE.

But says the correspondent, our friend failed to see it in that light, and it is evident (to use a southern phrase) that Mr. Pike is "barking up the wrong tree." If this is the kind of support he is depending on for his election, he will find himself in September tangled in the meshes of the Greeley net, so far up Salt River that he will be unable to tell whether he is really a Pike, or a sculpin.

THE "COBDEN" IN WHEAT. The fate which has overtaken the original and principal managers of the late unsuccessful corner in Chicago to make a "corner" in wheat, partakes of retributive justice. Few of our readers, we apprehend, will feel pity for these parties over their downfall. Yesterday in apparent affluence and pushing on as shrewd which promised them untold wealth, even though it should impover ish others and wickedly bread from starving thousands; to-day finds us not only of funds but of moral character. For men who have been completely thrown on their bins by the fall part of speculation; who have formerly the paths of legitimate trade to pursue in the worst species of gambling or attempts to run up quotations and create an interest in shipments, rules it is unjust for the client to compensate the gambler, can only be regarded as the veriest [illegible] Their commercial credit is gone, their honest business [illegible] and those who are dragged down to conspicuous ruin through no fault of their own. But this "corner" will not be without its beneficence, for it shall tend to put a stop to the wild effort to make sudden fortunes which by the legitimate channels of trade cannot come save only after years of industry, sagacious dealing and wise economy—to put a stop to the unhealthy "cornering" process which is but another name for robbery, and content our business men to remain within the scope of honorable trade, which in this country is wide enough and offers opportunities enough to employ and completely and rapidly remunerate the best talents at home or abroad.—[Ed.

OUR STATE CANVASS.

But little more than a fortnight will elapse before our State election, towards which the whole country is looking with that intense gaze which is always directed to Maine when we test the strength of our forces prior to a great Presidential contest. The Pine Tree State has sounded the key-note of many grand and victorious campaigns, and our friends may be assured no uncertain sound will go out from our hillsides and valleys on the 9th of September. In looking over the State we may justly affirm that never were the watchfires of Republicanism burning more brightly; never were our people more fully alive to the vital importance of the issues involved in the struggle; and never were the auguries of a glorious triumph more positive or inspiring. The feeling manifested throughout the State is not of that over confidence which inclines to relax exertion, but of that confidence in what the people of Maine can do if they will, which stimulates every man to seek his place in the ranks, touch elbows with his comrades and press forward in irresistible column to strike the enemy a crushing blow.

While the effort to deceive and cajole our people into the support of a disguised rebel coalition has met with poor success, the devotion to Republican principles has found spontaneous expression in every city, town and hamlet. Of the Apostles of Greeleyism, two of the most vaunted, Kilpatrick and Doolittle, have abandoned the field without standing upon the order of their going, and Tilton alone of the pioneers despondingly wanders from place to place striving in vain to stay the rising flood of Republican enthusiasm with the flimsy web of his fine-spun abstractions and unsuccessfully seeking to make the "old white coat" presentable to Maine voters by covering its rents and tatters with the embroidery of his rhetoric. The people think for themselves, and one hour of the patriotic fervor of Bingham, or the calm, intensely earnest and convincing eloquence of Douglass stirring the chords of sympathy and conviction which would never respond to tirades of abuse directed at the man to whom the nation owes so much, or the allegation of wrongs which exist only in the distortions of political enmity.

The Greeleyites, rendered desperate by the rapid waning of their hopes, with throw all their energies into the brief period between now and election, and the apostate Republicans who begin to fear the fate which is approaching will swarm into the State for a final effort to shake the Republican column.—But it will not avail. They may be listened to with the curiosity that attracts persons to hear how men talk when they have deserted their principles; but the people of Maine think, read and understand the merits of this contest, and all the oratory employed to persuade them into aiding a restoration of the Democratic party to power will be as wasteful as the idle wind. The thought, intelligence and patriotism of our people is already marshaled for the contest, and no barrier of cunning words can betray or obstruct their triumphant course. The country waits for Maine to speak, and she will answer with the clear, familiar, ringing voice of old.

Our friends should push the good cause in every section of the State without ceasing.—Organization should be everywhere perfected and every effort made to swell the vote and the Republican majority in September. Remember that our Presidential fight is at the State election, and that while the enemy counts on the refusal of some Grant men to support the State ticket, they hold every "Liberal" recruit to the strongest pledge in support of Kimball. The following resolution forced through a so-called "Liberal Republic in Convention at Augusta tells the story of the whole Greeley campaign.

Read it, Grant Republicans, and smile as you think how credulous are our enemies to suppose that for their benefit our hands will be withheld when the heaviest blow is to be struck for the national cause:

"Resolved, That inasmuch as the vote for Perham for Governor of the State will be proclaimed throughout the country as Grants strength in this State, a wise policy demands that all who desire the election of Horace Greeley for President should throw their votes in September for Charles P. Kimball for Governor of this State."

That is the last desperate reliance of the foes for weakening the effect of our triumph! We will show them that the Republicans of Maine are awake, and on the 9th of September our watch-word will be, EVERY VOTE FOR PERHAM IS A VOTE FOR GRANT!

DISTINGUISHED "LIBERALS."

As a sample of the manner in which the feeble cause of "Liberal Republicanism" in Maine, is puffed up and exaggerated by the Greeley newspaper writers, we copy a brief extract from a out letter from Portland to the Washington Patriot, the whole communication being as independent of fact as the following:

Ex-Senator Theophilus H. Cushing, a leader in the party, heads the Liberals in the county of Waldo, as does the Hon. A. D. Manson, recently President of the Senate and Mayor of Bangor, in the county of Penobscot. Bangor furnishes another highly influential Liberal in the person of Colonel J. F. Godfrey, the commander of the Grand Army of the Republic for the Department of Maine, while Hon. A. G. Lebroke, the head of the bar in Piscataquis county, ex-member of the Legislature, and an eloquent stump speaker, is also out for Greeley.

The gentleman first named is not a resident of Waldo County, having removed to Canada where his vote for Greeley will not affect the American canvass. We think the second gentleman has a very distinct recollection that he was not a President of the Senate. Indeed, we are quite sure he has not forgotten the failure to elevate him to that dignified position. He was once Mayor of Bangor for a single term. The third gentleman is so constantly and ostentatiously credited, with an office which he does not hold, that we state for the information of that class of papers which have not paid much attention to the Grand Army—until recently—that the Commander for the Department of Maine is General Daniel White, of this city, a gallant officer and a friend and supporter of General Grant. The Grand Army is not a political body and should not be dragged into political discussions, but as so much pains have been taken to use the attitude of the Commander of Post Beale to give the impression that the veterans sustain Greeley and the rebel coalition, we feel justified in stating that out of a membership of over one hundred in this city we know of but two Greeley men: Col. J. Frank Godfrey and the ubiquitous Gymnocrist reporter, some of whose achievements we have been called upon recently to chronicle, and who was last reported in the newspapers as occupying a seat among the distinguished guests at the Reunion in Portland. The third gentleman mentioned probably would not complain of the portrait made for him; and as to his importance, we bel eve it is conceded in Piscataquis County that he exercises some influence over his own vote. The above is a list of Brigadiers; where is the army?

THE GOLD MARKET. A recent Washington special predicted a heavy rise in the price of gold owing to the advantage which speculators would take of the public apprehension excited by the bare possibility of Greeley's election. Secretary Boutwell has insisted upon keeping a balance in the Treasury to meet any emergency and steady prices, against Greeley's vehement protest. This balance has at times reached $100,000,000, and though it has cost the government something in interest, it has saved from loss and ruin thousands of its business men, protected the people from high premiums, and indirectly saved to the nation over ten times the amount it has sacrificed. Owing to heavy disbursements under acts of the last Congress the cash in the Treasury has decreased to about $40,000,000, but of this some $10,000,000 are due as interest on gold-bearing coupon bonds. The leaves a small balance with which to check the New York operators and a heavy rise even to above 30 is predicted by some, which would cause great financial embarrassment.

Judge Richardson, acting Secretary of the Treasury, however, expresses the conviction that two things will steady money this fall, and keep gold within a reasonable figure.—The first is the re-election of Gen. Grant and the second a heavy award of the Geneva tribunal in gold in the matter of the Alabama claims, which amount would have to be paid at Washington. The present downward tendency of coin the Judge attributes to the growing feeling in financial circles that the present administration will be heartily endorsed in November next.

THAT "REVEREND" SLANDERER. The latest ally of the Greeleyites in their crusade of slander is the Rev. C. W. Denison, whose false report was daily and crushingly contradicted by Senator Wilson. A communication to the Washington Chronicle says of this man that he "has been for years a recognized dead-beat on the Baptist denomination," and that the person of his present malicious opposition to the administration is that the War Department some time ago refused to pay him for several months' desertion of his post as army chaplain, and dismissed him from the service."

The fellow was also employed a short time ago to canvass for subscriptions to a Washington daily paper, but as he sent in many names without paying over any of the money, he was got rid of as speedily as possible. Of this chapter of his record we have positive information. And this is the "Reverend" character it ought forward by the Greeleyites to break down the reputation of the President by charging him with drunkenness.—The instrument is worthy of the warfare.

FAIRLY STATED. The Springfield Republican, a Greeley organ, says respecting the contest in Maine:

The question is one not of who shall carry the State, but by what majority the Republicans shall continue to hold it. If their majority shall be cut down to 4000 or 5000, as the Liberals claim is possible, it will be a great Liberal triumph, and will give a chance for Greeley to carry the State in November. If, on the other hand, the Republicans retain possession by a majority of not less than 10,000, it will be a decided Republican triumph, and will leave the vote of November for Grant undisputed and will encourage the Grant cause all over the Union.

The above is a fair statement, only that Greeley stands a poorer chance than Kimball, as thousands of Democrats who may vote for the latter, will bolt the Philosopher without fail.

PENNSYLVANIA. Senator Cameron is entirely confident of complete victory in Pennsylvania in October, and scarcely questions the success of the whole ticket by a large majority. He says that Forney's opposition to Hartranft never had any force or strength outside of Philadelphia, and that its effects are rapidly disappearing in that city.

The Boston Journal cites the significant fact: "That wherever they have a sure thing, wherever an affiliation can offer no surety of success, the Democracy nominate for Congress men conspicuous for their advocacy in times past of the doctrine of Secession. A striking example is furnished in the Fourth Maine Congressional District."

The Tribune says: "The news from Maine continues to be of the most cheering character." In the same connection it announces Dr. C. A. Jordan of Bangor as one of the visitors at Greeley head-quarters.—Comment is superfluous. Cochnani probably did the gentlemanly thing.

The Portland Advertiser says "The Argus has finally got through with Farnsworth's speech. Now it is in order for that paper to tell the public how Mr. Farnsworth happened to be a Greeley man. Didn't he run for the regular Republican nomination for Congress and didn't his Greeley enthusiasm commence immediately after his defeat?"

Sheriff Perry of Portland promptly squelched the insinuations of the Argus by a card over his own signature stating that "no Republican has ever consulted with nor advised me to relax, and liberalize the enforcement of the Liquor Law until after the September election."

PLAIN DEMOCRATIC TALK. The New York World, in an article discountenancing the Louisville convention, addresses Democrats in the following language: "No Presidential candidate is independent of the political organization to which he owes his election. The Democratic party will have a control over Mr. Greeley which it could not exert over Gen. Grant. We believe that Mr. Greeley will in good faith recognize his obligations to the Democratic party. His Cabinet will necessarily contain a large proportion of Democratic advisers; Democrats will be appointed to foreign missions and consulships, and to subordinate administrative offices at home, none of which advantages could be expected from the re-election of Grant."

THE DIFFERENCE. The Kennebec Journal says: "On Greeley Day there were 90 tickets sold at Portland for Augusta, though the price was only one dollar. There were 313 tickets sold at Portland for Bangor, at two dollars apiece, the day the great Republican demonstration took place in the latter city. "How is that for high?"

MAINE NEWS.

FROM PORTLAND

[Special dispatch to the Whig & Courier.]

THE SOLDIERS' MASS CONVENTION.

PORTLAND, Aug. 25.

Everything promises that the soldiers' and citizens' Republican mass-meeting in this city on Tuesday, will be a great success. Full and complete arrangements have been made for the meeting and the torchlight procession in the evening, which it is purposed to make the grandest demonstration of the campaign. Arrangements have been made for the trains to Augusta and Bangor to return at the close of the display. We expect the Penobscot boys in full force.

***

REPUBLICAN RALLY.

BRUNSWICK, Aug. 24.

The Republicans held mother meeting in Lemont Hall last evening, and were addressed by H. u. Wm. P Frye. Previous to the meeting the Tanners paraded the streets with torches and a band of music, and two more Grant and Wilson flags were raised.

WALDO COUNTY REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

BELFAST, Aug. 24.

At the Republican County Convention today, Dr. John G. Brooks of this city and J. M. Coffin of Thorndike were nominated for Senators, Samuel Norton of Palermo for Sheriff, Geo. E. Brackett of Belfast for Register of Deeds, Asa Thurlow of Montroe for Judge of Probate, Bahar S. Field of Belfast for Register of Probate, and H. H. Forges of Belfast for County Treasurer. This afternoon a mass meeting is to be addressed by Secretary Robeson and Hon. Lot M. Morrill.

FROM AUGUSTA.

FLAG RAISING.

AUGUSTA, Me., Aug. 25.

A large and beautiful flag, bearing the names of Grant and Wilson, was raised last night on Cushnoc Height in this city. Three companies of tanners, lead by the Augusta Band, and a large crowd of citizens participated in the ceremonies. Hon. J. H. Drummond of Portland delivered a telling speech. This makes eight flags flying in this city bearing the names of Grant and Wilson.—There are three bearing the names of Greeley and Brown.

FROM ROCKLAND.

THE "LIBERAL" PIKE.

ROCKLAND, Aug. 25.

Hon. F. A. Pike, Democratic and Liberal Republican candidate for Congress in this district, addressed a large audience at Farwell & Ames hall last evening. Mr. Pike finds few or no supporters outside of the Democratic party in this city.

DOMESTIC NEWS

NEW YORK.

CONNOLLY TO APPEAR AS STATE'S EVIDENCE.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24. It is stated that Comptroller Connolly has not been further than fifty miles from New York,—most of the time in Westchester county; that he will turn State's evidence, and his testimony will absolve ex-Senator Tweed and twenty others of the ring officials, whose names have not so far been published. He will first appear to testify against the voucher thieves under Attorney General Barlow's instructions.

A PERSISTENT SUICIDE.

Thomas B. Dunigee, aged 40, a wealthy English-American, and wholesale lace importer, attempted suicide four times yesterday. He first ran a needle in his throat, then rushed to a drug store and seizing a bottle marked "poison" swallowed the contents, and then stabbed himself with a penknife, and when seized and rescued for the third time he broke away and plunged a butcher knife into his breast, making, probably a fatal wound. He was suffering from delirium tremens.

IN GENERAL.

Both O'Baldwin and Mace, the prize fighters claim the stakes.

A corner in cheese is threatened here. The market is poorly supplied.

The Brazilian Ministeraccompanied by the Princes Augustus and Philip, visited President Grant at Long Branch yesterday.

A correspondent of the Sun throws discredit on Stanley's accounts of finding Livingstone.

A vessel laden with blocks of brown stone capsized this morning in mid channel, near Little Flood Rock, Hell Gate, and directly in the track of large vessels

Police Sergeant Carr of the Leonards station has absconded to California after victimizing civilians and policemen to the extent of $7000.

MISSOURI.

KU-KLUX ARRESTED.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 24. William Nevels and Humphrey Gaines were brought here last night under arrest, charged with participating in the whipping of Thomas Lawson in Carter county.

Two weeks ago they were examined before Commissioner Clarke. The testimony was clear that the accused assisted in the whipping, but was regarded by the District Attorney as insufficient to hold them under the Ku-Klux act, and on his motion the prisoners were discharged. There is nothing to show that politics had anything to do with the act.

HOT.

Twenty cases of sunstroke occurred during the past three days. The majority of them were fatal.

THE GENEVA ARBITRATION.

BANQUET TO THE COMMISSIONERS.

GENEVA, Aug. 24. All the members of the Board of Arbitration and their families, with the exception of Alexander Cockburn and Jacob Staempfli, dined yesterday with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bancroft Davis. The reception in the evening, given by Mrs. Davis, was attended by a large and brilliant company.—The rooms were festooned with flags and the gardens were illuminated. Many houses of the residents were decorated in honor of the occasion.

CONFLAGRATION

A WHOLE BLOCK BURNED.

HELENA, Montana, Aug. 24. A fire last night destroyed the North Pacific Hotel, the Gazette printing establishment, and every building in block bounded by Jackson and Grand streets, Broadway and Court House Square, besides other buildings on adjacent block. Lost about $70,000; insurance small.

FROM WASHINGTON.

DEAD LETTERS.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24. Nearly three million letters went to the Dead Letter office last year. They are partly classified as follows: 5,800 letters had no county or State directions; more than $80,000 lacked stamps, and 3,000 were posted without any address at all; $9,200 in cash and more than $3,000, 000 in drafts, checks, &c., were found in these letters. It appears that on the average every letter misdirected or that goes to the Dead Letter office from any cause contains one dollar.

A STRANGE OVERSIGHT.

The Attorney General to-day gave his decision that the postal card system cannot go into operation till Congress makes special appropriation for the purpose, the postal appropriation bill making no provision for the system.

THE BALANCE

in the Treasury to-day are currency, $4,235,-507; coin $73,879,564, including $29,653,700 in coin certificates.

RHODE ISLAND

BURGLARS ARRAIGNED.

PROVIDENCE, Aug. 24. Henry Tilghman, Henry Johnson and Henry Thomas, negroes arrested for burglary at the house of Job F. Angell, North Providence, Monday night, when Mrs. Angell shot and her daughter severely beaten, were arraigned this morning. All plead guilty and were committed to jail to await the action of the Grand Jury.

Vest Virginia Election!

ANOTHER SET-BACK FOR GREELEY!

JACOB ELECTED AND THE REPUBLICAN CONSTITUTION KILLED!

Jacob's Majority from 5,000 to 6,000!

HEAVY DEMOCRATIC LOSSES!

[illegible]

NEW YORK, Aug. 24. A night despatch from Martinsburg, West Virginia, last night, states that enough is known of the election in the State to show that the Constitution is defeated by two or three thousand majority, and that Jacob (Independent Democrat) is elected by the same vote. The word "white" as a qualification for office was submitted for a separate vote, and almost unanimously voted down.

FROM PARKERSBURG—ELECTION OF JACOB!

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Aug. 24. A special despatch says that at two o'clock this P. M. the indications were that Jacob has carried the State by a small majority. Parkersburg gives 107 majority for the Constitution.

21 COUNTIES HEARD FROM—THE MAJORITIES DECISIVE AND GROWING.

WHEELING, W. Va., Aug. 24. Returns from 2 counties give Jacob 3,800 majority and 2,800 against the new Constitution. It will be several days before the official result can be given.

LATER—Aug. 25.—Reports to the Intelligence from 33 counties give Jacob for Governor within a few votes of 6,000 majority.—This is likely to be increased than diminished by the 21 counties yet to be heard from.—The Democrats concede Jacob's election by 5,000 or 6,000 majority. In 1870 the majority was 2,650, an in 1871, on the seal for a convention, 2,800. The gain over the regular Democracy since 1871 is from 8,000 to 9,000.

POLITICAL.

LABOR REFORMERS.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 24. Yesterday afternoon, at Spring Garden Hall, an adjourned meeting of the State Labor Reform Convention was held. Col. Thomas McDowell, of Harrisburg, presided. Resolutions were adopted, that a committee of five be appointed to confer with the Louisville Convention, and ask them to adopt our principles, and that they be instructed to recommend the name of Charles O'Conor as our choice.

FOR LOUISVILLE—"INFORMAL."

NEW YORK, Aug. 24. In an interview last night Senator O'Brien pronounced for Louisville and Charles O'Conor.

The Times prints a letter from Greeley to President Lincoln, urging the latter to appoint B. F. Camp as Surveyor of this port.

It is thought that Gen. Slocum will be the candidate of the Democrats for Governor of this State.

THE COLORED MEN FOR GRANT.

The negroes at Long Branch held an extensive Grant and Wilson celebration last night. The waiters at the hotels marched in a body to the meeting.

A full negro regiment is being raised at New Brunswick, N. J.

SPEECH BY SENATOR WILSON.

Sena or Wilson addressed a mass meeting at Hudson last night, saying that he had no doubt the Republicans would carry 20 out of 21 of the free States of the country. He said the question was not whether Grant or Greeley should be President, but whether the Republican party, which had saved the country and made it free, should, with the help of forty or fifty thousand disaffected Republicans be made to abdicate and let the Democratic party to into power. He had no unkind words to say of Greeley and Brown.

He regretted the position they had taken, but their success would be a regular Democratic triumph and again the voice of rebellion would be heard in such an event, this time in Washington. He urged New York to come out of the doubtful States, for although its position would not affect the result of the election in the country, the Republicans wanted the Empire State to occupy the place in the Union nature intended for it.

THE LOUISIANA BARTER.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 24. The meeting of the Democratic and Liberal Republican Conference committee has been postponed until the arrival of the county members, who have been summoned to meet here early next week. A conference of the Pinchback party and the Republicans, with the view of uniting the State and electoral tickets takes place next Tuesday.

MORE STRAIGHT-OUTS.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 24. The straight-out Democratic Club of the District of Columbia last evening appointed two delegates to the Louisville Convention and adopted resolutions pledging their support to Charles O'Conor for the Presidency.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 24. A special from Sedalia, Mo., says that the straight Democrats held a meeting at Clinton, Mo., yesterday, at which a straight club was organized with 47 members. Resolutions were adopted favoring the Louisville Convention

CHURCH SCENTS COMING DEFEAT.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 24. Judge Church has addressed a letter to Wm. Williams of this city, declining the Democratic nomination for Governor.

NEW JERSEY STRAIGHTS.

TRENTON, N. J., Aug. 24. The Democratic Convention this afternoon pas ed straight Democratic resolutions and elected delegates to the Louisville Convention

NOMINATED.

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 24. The Democrats of the 20th District have nominated Selah Chamberlain for Congress.

NEW JERSEY.

THE STRAIGHT-OUT DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

TRENTON, Aug. 24. The Straight-Out Democratic Convention met to-day. Twenty-five delegates were present, who were called to order by C. C. Burr, who nominated Samuel J. Bayard as temporary Chairman.—Mr. Bayard made a speech, in which he declared that every State will be represented at Louisville, and that the action at Baltimore will be repudiated by the Louisville Convention. He said that the Democracy will eventually rally round the Louisville nominees.

The committee on permanent organization and resolutions and for the nomination of delegates to the Louisville Convention were appointed and the convention took a recess until this afternoon

UTAH.

INDIAN COMPLAINTS.

SALT LAKE, Aug. 23. The following are stated as the complaints of the Indians, made in the council to-day, with Gen. Morrow and party. First, a failure on the part of the government to fulfil the promises made to the Indians; second, the title to their country, still good, though much has been sold by the government; third, the supplies furnished by the government in goods and rations are insufficient; fourth, there is no place at the agency where they can trade their poultry for necessaries.

Tabby said: "We want a good man as trader, with a large supply of goods; also, a good man as agent. No agent has acted right with us."

PACIFIC MEASURES.

Gen. Morrow's talk seems to have had a happy effect, resulting in an agreement that the Indians of White River and Uintah agencies are not again to leave their reservations during the present year without permission. Application will be made for the principal chiefs to visit Washington and make their own cases personally to the government, and if not granted, to have a commission appointed to come out and investigate their grievances.

FROM THE PACIFIC (Sept)

THE GREAT CROPS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 24. In many parts of the State wheat is so shrunken that the facilities for transportation are wholly inadequate, and farmers will be unable to get the bulk of their grain forward before the rainy season.

POLITICAL.

The Democrats of Washington Territory will probably nominate Judge McFadden for delegate to Congress.]

IOWA.

DOINGS OF THE SCIENTIFIC.

DUBUQUE, Aug. 24. Yesterday was the third day's proceedings of the Association for the Advancement of Science, and were very brief. The only papers read were those by Prof. Lovering of Cambridge, on Sympathetic Vibration as exhibited in ordinary mechanical vibration and upteat method of showing them. D. D. Warner of New York, two papers—one a discussion of the Forces of Expansion and Contraction, and the other a Hypothetical Explanation of Expansion.—Professors Easter of Chicago, Swallow of Missouri, Whitnell of Michigan, Marthon of Illinois, and Morse of New York, occupied the remainder of the session.

FOREIGN NEWS.

GREAT BRITAIN.

BECOMING VENTILATED.

London, Aug. 24. Several English railway companies cause plans abolishing the use of close carriages an adopting the style of car in vogue in the United States.

STEAMER DISABLED.

PLYMOUTH, Aug. 24. The steamship Wisconsin, which sailed on the 17th for Quebec and Montreal, broke her shaft when a few days out, and was compelled to return. The passengers were transferred to the steamer Medway which sailed to-day.

THE DOMINION.

CRICKET.

TORONTO, Aug. 24. The first innings in the cricket match between the English eleven against the Montreal club resulted in a score for the eleven: 15, and 48 for their opponent.

EXTENSIVE FIRES

MITCHELL, Ont., Aug. 24. The principal part of the business portion of this town was burned this morning, including the post office, telegraph office and several stores. The loss amounts to $100,000, being insured for only $15,000.

FRANCE.

AID FOR THE EXILED ALSATIANS.

PARIS, Aug. 24. The Band of the Garde Republicaine gave a concert in Havre last eve for the benefit of Alsatians, who left their native province in consequence of its occupation by the Germans.

A TOUCHING CEREMONIAL.

A number of Alsatian maidens dressed in mourning and carrying the French National colors, took up a collection from the audience. The greatest enthusiasm was manifested, and large sums of money collected.

GERMANY.

THE AMERICAN FLEET.

BERLIN, Aug. 24. The American fleet has arrived in the Baltic. Admiral Alden and several of the officers came here to-day and took up quarters at the Royal Hotel, where they will remain until the return of the Emperor.

SPAIN.

FEARS OF ANOTHER INSURRECTION

Madrid, Aug. 24. Fears are entertained by the government of another insurrection in the provinces bordering on France. Preparations are being made to promptly repress any disorder.

THE CONSPIRACY KNOWN.

It is known that the government has received information of an organized plan for an insurrection in the disaffected provinces of the north. The time fixed by the revolutionists for the uprising is the 28th of the present month. The French government has been informed of the plans of the conspirators, and requested to use precautions to prevent them from receiving aid from France.

THE ELECTIONS.

It is believed that the approaching elections for the Cortes will result in the choice of a large majority of members favorable to the government. The indications are that more than one hundred Republicans will be elected. The Carlists, as in the previous elections for the Cortes, will abstain from voting.

A QUIET ELECTION.

Madrid, Aug. 24. The elections for members of the Cortes took place to-day. No disorder occurred. No returns have yet been received.

Amadeus has returned to Madrid.

CUBA.

THE INSURGENTS MASSING—HAVANA OVERRUN WITH SCOUNDRELS.

NEW YORK, Aug. 24. Havana advices say the insurgents are massing all their force to make a fresh movement on Cinco Villas.

Havana is overrun with scoundrels of every description. Constant murders and robberies are committed. The police are seemingly powerless.

LOVE'S REASONS.

Why do I love my darling so?
Good faith, my heart, I hardly know.
I have such store of reasons:
I would not take me all a summer day—
Nay, saying half that I could say—
Would fill the circling seasons.

Because her eyes are softly brown,
My dove, who quietly hath flown
To rest in her bower?
Because her hair is soft, and laid
Maidenlike wise in simple braid,
And deftly as the raven?

Because her lips are sweet to touch,
Not chill, nor fiery overmuch,
But softly warm as roses.
Dear lips that chasten while they move,
Lips that a man may live to love,
Till earthly love-longings cease?

Because her hand is soft and white,
Of touch so tender and so light,
That where her slender finger
Doth fall or move, the man to whom
The guards of Eden whispered, "Come!"
Beneath its spell might linger?

Because her heart is woman-soft,
So true, so tender, that I oft
Do marvel that a treasure
So rich, so rare to manhood fall,
Whose sole desert—so small, so small,
Is loving past all measure?

Because she hath such store of mode,
So mighty smiles, so stately brooks,
So lovingly caresses;
So that my heart may never tire
Of memories, or more desire
Than she, my love, possesses?

Ah me! what know or what care I?
Or what hath love to do with "Why?"
How simple is the reason!
I love her—for she is my love,
And shall while stars shall shine above,
And season follow season.

$150,000

1st MORTGAGE BONDS.

Issue Only $28,500 per Mile.

THE ROAD NOW RACKING NET, NEARLY DOUBLE ITS ANNUAL INTEREST OBLIGATIONS.

THE LEADING POINTS IN RELATION TO THESE BONDS ARE AS FOLLOWS:

The Stockholders have built a first class road and equipped it in a first class manner, entirely with their own money.

They have built their road through one of the richest portions of the State, where all the old roads into Chicago are earning over $10,000 per mile per annum, and are paying large and regular dividends.

They have built the shortest road to the celebrated Block Coal Mines, whose products have large and increasing market in Chicago, in the manufacture of iron, as well as for domestic uses.

The road is already earning so large an excess of its interest, that it is likely that its Bonds are safe beyond contingency.

The amount of the mortgage is very moderate, being only about $ 8,500 per mile.

While Railroad Bonds may be plenty, it is not upon profitable lines, and for so small an amount, are seldom in the market.

Over $1,300,000 of these Bonds have been sold in a few weeks to Trust Companies, Savings Banks, trustees of estates, and the most careful private investors, and but a small amount remains for which early application should be made.

That as only a small amount remains unsold, parties who want these should make immediate application.

The Bonds are for $1,000 each, have forty years to run, and bear interest at the rate of 7 per cent. per annum, payable on the first of April and October, both principal and interest being payable in gold in New York.

Price 90 and Accrued Interest.

We do not hesitate to recommend these Bonds as unusually safe. They are attended with none of the uncertainties of projected enterprises, and the prompt payment of the interest, and the final payment of the principal are as certain as any future financial event can well be.

IMPROVED

PORTABLE RANGE.

THE NEW RANGE excels anything of the kind ever offered for sale. It requires much less space than ordinary cooking stoves, and is more economical. It will heat as much water as a range set in masonry.

The HOT CLOSET retains the heat usually radiated from the bottom, which is, during the summer months WORSE THAN WASTED, thereby not only SAVING FUEL, but making the KITCHEN MORE COMFORTABLE, besides furnishing an admirable place for warming and keeping food warm, warming plates, &c. The door can be removed during cold weather to allow the heat to escape into the kitchen.

Coals are separated from the ashes in the SIFTING CHAMBER.

PATENT NOVELTY GAS STOVE

The most convenient, useful and cheapest article in use. Its cost is about one quarter; yet it will do all the work of a Gas stove costing from five to eight dollars. It will boil a quart of water in five minutes attached to any common gas-burner, will fry all kinds of meats, boil potatoes or any kind of vegetables, in fact, do any amount of cooking to the trifling expense of less than one cent an hour. It is invaluable in the nursery, sick-room, or of the kitchen in warm weather, and a trial of it is only wished to show that it is indispensable in every household. It utilizes most all of the cooking materials of the kitchen, such as frying pans, saucepans, coffeepots, teapots, &c.

The children like it and they tell it. It cures their Colds and makes them well; and mothers seek the store to buy it.

With Bronchitis we have to deal.
Which rages from the north to south;
In twenty hours by rail or stage
It reaches every town and mouth.

There is no disease with which our country is afflicted, which sweeps off annually so many victims as that fell destroyer of the human race,

CONSUMPTION.

It is estimated that nearly 175,000 die annually with this terrible disease. Consumption in its confirmed stages, Coughs, Affections of the Throat, Chest and Lungs, Croup, &c., form by far the most fatal class of disease known to mankind.

Yet even those may be effectually cured by means of the simple, yet wonderful remedy that nature has furnished.

THE GREAT REMEDY

Extracts of Roots and Herbs which almost invariably cure the following complaints:

DYSPEPSIA, Heart Burn, Liver complaint, and Loss of Appetite caused by taking a few bottles

LASSITUDE, Low spirits and dislike to Conversation caused at once.

ERUPTIONS, Pimples, Blotches, and all Impurities of the blood, breaking through the skin by others we cannot reach, will readily disappear following the directions on the bottle.

KIDNEY, Bladder and Urinary Derangements invariably cured. One trial will convince the most skeptical.

WORMS, expelled from the system without the least difficulty. Parents suffering from this prevalent disease will see a marked change for the better in their condition after taking one bottle. Worm difficulties are more prevalent than is generally supposed in the country, and they will find the Quaker Bitters a sure remedy.

NERVOUS DIFFICULTIES, Neuralgia, &c., speedily relieved.

RHEUMATISM, Stiff Joints and all Scrofular Affections removed or greatly relieved by this invaluable medicine.

BRONCHITIS, Catarrh, Convulsions, and Hysterics cured or much relieved.

DIFFICULT BREATHING, Pain in the Lungs, Back and Chest, soon invariably cured by taking a few bottles of the Quaker Bitters.

ALL DIFFICULT Female Derangements, (almost invariably caused by alviolation of the telorganic laws) so prevalent in the American ladies yield readily to this invaluable medicine—the Quaker Bitters.

ALL IMPURITIES of the Blood and diseases incident to the same always cured by the Quaker Bitters, if taken according to the directions.

THE AGED find in the Quaker Bitters just the article they stand in need of in their declining years. It quickens the blood, clears the mind, and paves the passage down the plane inclined.
